

HARWOOD DESCRIBES WORK OF HIGH SCHOOL

Principal of John Marshall Tells of Its Activities at Commencement.

MEDALS AND HONORS AWARDED
High Record Made at Colleges by Former Pupils—Dr. Calisch Makes Address to Graduating Class. Many Scholarships Announced.

The City Auditorium was packed by school patrons last night at the commencement exercises of John Marshall High School, when the largest class in the history of the school—193—were awarded diplomas. Principal James C. Harwood introduced Dr. Edward N. Calisch, rabbi of Beth Abrahah Synagogue, whose address was the feature of the evening. Mr. Harwood's talk was a brief resume of what John Marshall, which is the only senior high school of Richmond, had accomplished during the past year along various lines of activity.

This has been a most unusual session, began Mr. Harwood. "Never before in the history of the school have teachers and pupils been called upon to take part in so many outside activities. We have made gains in the Red Cross, raised money to adopt war orphans in France, collected 12,000 books for soldiers, sold $5,000 worth of Liberty bonds, helped classify the registration cards of men summoned by the government, raised $4,012.95 for war savings stamps, secured 202 memberships in the Red Cross and done many other things which cannot pause to mention—things which have caused some of our conservative friends to shake their heads and say that we were forgetting the main object of our existence as a school."

NO LOSS FROM THESE OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES
"It is with great pleasure, therefore, that I tell you this evening that it is my candid judgment that we not only have not lost anything by these extra school activities, but that we have gained in many different directions. We have learned loyalty and self-sacrifice, we have learned loyalty and co-operation, and we feel that teachers and pupils will make better citizens because of this year's work."

"But for fear that our conservative friends may think that these results are problematical and intangible, I am glad that I can make a further report. It is the unanimous judgment of the faculty of the school that this outside work has been done without sacrificing either in amount or in quality, the regular work of the school. The results of the examinations recently closed have shown a large percentage of promotions than in former years, and I have the pleasure of presenting to you to-night the largest graduating class in the history of the school."

"Our total enrollment this year numbers 1,350 students and we have over 500 stars in our service flag. We have had one alumnus wounded and returned to his corps, one has made the great and final sacrifice, and one has won the distinguished service medal for gallantry in the field."

"Our faculty numbers seventy-eight. It will come as a surprise to many of you when I tell you that we have twenty-two men teachers furloughed on military duty."

ALL CADET COMMANDANTS ARE NOW IN THE SERVICE

"Our cadet corps has had four commandants—Conquest, Burgess, Ayres and Munce—all of them are in the service of their country. The corps numbers 350 men and is to be especially commended for the excellent work done this season and for the faithfulness with which it has responded to the many calls made upon it this season for extra service."

"The Girls' Service Corps, which was established late in the session, has given a good account of itself for the short time it has been in existence. Four units of the sanitary corps were established in May, under the direction of Dr. Robert C. Hyman, and boys in these units are taught by Drs. Gorsline, Lipscomb, Fitzgerald, and McGowan. It is possible that the boys may be of considerable service in connection with the hospital at Westhampton if wounded soldiers are sent here in large numbers."

"Commencement time always brings back a host of loyal alumni to the school. This year they have come laden with fresh laurels from other institutions of learning. At Richmond College we had three out of the honor society—the Arachnidae."

"At Randolph-Macon Woman's College the highest standing in the freshman class was won by Miss Arline Eubank, who was awarded the freshman scholarship. At Washington and Lee two of the six scholarships awarded for highest standing were given to Samuel C. Anderson and Craig Houston Patterson. At the University of Virginia, Ellsworth Wiltshire was elected to the Raven Society, having made two years' work in one year. James Sloan won a competitive appointment to West Point Military Academy and Samuel E. Witt led the class at V. M. I. winning the highest Jackson Hope medal and two others and establishing the highest record for honors awarded to a single student ever achieved at this institution."

CALISCH DISCUSSES AMERICA'S PART IN WAR
With deep earnestness which has characterized Dr. Calisch's address, he thrilled the immense audience with his words and particularly America's part in the war—what it meant to America to have entered the war and what part would be played by America in the reconstruction of the world after the war. "Germany is a malignant cancer," declared the speaker, "which must be cut out of the body politic," "so that after the war we can proceed to the reconstruction of our social order."

"For the great work of reconstruction, we will need men of broad vision, of deep human sympathies, of a profound sense of justice."

The speaker expressed his profound belief that justice and righteousness were bound to triumph in the end, and that the Stars and Stripes for the first time carried on the battle fields of the old world would come to mean the new order of a world-wide democracy. The 193 diplomas were delivered by W. Floyd Reams, chairman of the City School Board, who preceded his task by a three-minute talk in which he congratulated Richmond on her "splendid exhibit" shown last night and declared that it was the answer to the popular war chorus so often sung in Richmond: "What Are You Going to Do for Uncle Sammy?" The School Board will lose three members to the colors this year. Dr. James Morrison Hutchison has already gone into service, and two other members will follow shortly.

The music was an especially enjoyable feature of the finale last night, the high school chorus of several hundred voices led by an orchestra being very effective.

EXPECTED AUSTRIAN CRISIS FAILED TO MATERIALIZE

Plenary Meeting of Polish Party Will Be Held June 21 to Reconsider Resolutions.

(By Associated Press.)
AMSTERDAM, June 17.—The expected turn in the Austrian political situation by ministerial action over the weekend did not materialize, pending a plenary meeting of the Polish party, announced for June 21, to reconsider the Cracow resolutions, which were a virtual appeal for the independence of Poland and its separation from Austria and the Hapsburg dynasty.

It is believed, according to news advices here, that an open German-Polish breach will not ensue, even should the Cracow resolutions be upheld and the situation remain unchanged until such time as the parties can come to terms.

Some German elements hope that the meeting on June 21 will build a bridge for an agreement. If this occurs, a summer convocation of the Austrian Parliament is deemed within the range of probability.

Calomel Loses You a Day's Work!

Take Dodson's Liver Tone Instead
Read my guarantee! If bilious, constipated or head-achy you need not take nasty, sickening, dangerous calomel to get straightened up.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist—has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. "Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much, but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggish-ness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back."

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine: no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and to-morrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.—Adv.

THEIR COMMANDS GONE, TWO DESERTERS ARRIVE

Had Been Long in Hiding in the Mountains of West Virginia.

MANY NEW MEN ARE COMING
Camp Lee Expects 15,000 in Five-Day Period Beginning June 21. Miss Osborne Will Go to France in Y. M. C. A. Work.

CAMP LEE, VA., June 17.—Charles Shanholzer, of Hampshire County, W. Va., a deserter from Battery E, Three Hundred and Thirtieth Field Artillery, and Dick Foley, of Virginia, a deserter from Company E, Three Hundred and Eightieth Infantry, both units of the Eightieth Division, which have already arrived overseas, were returned to camp to-day from Washington Barracks, Washington, D. C., where they had been confined since their arrest near Romney, W. Va., last Friday. These two men were arrested after an all-day hunt by a posse of twenty, headed by Sheriff Pugh, of Hampshire County. The hunt started at 2 o'clock in the morning and ended when the arrest was made late in the afternoon. The deserters had been hiding in a cave near the home of Shanholzer in the mountains of West Virginia. The arrests were effected at the home of the grandfather of Shanholzer, where the men had taken refuge following a fusillade of shots, when they failed to stop upon command. When arrested Shanholzer was armed John Crook, his grandfather, gave the party trouble and was handcuffed. The men will be tried by general court in the near future. Desertion in time of war may carry a penalty of death. The heaviest fine imposed at this camp for such an offense was twenty years at hard labor.

Chief of Police A. L. Dickens, of Wilson, N. C., delivered to the authorities here to-day Thea Tant, of North Carolina, who deserted from Company E, 10th Cavalry Infantry, which was in training at Camp Greene.

He was returned to this camp as the nearest military post.

Among the 15,000 drafted men who will arrive in the five-day period beginning June 21, is R. K. Shelton, who successfully coached the baseball team of the University of West Virginia during the season just closed. Shelton was a student at West Virginia ten years ago, when he played second base on the nine and quarterback in football. He was later manager of Maysville in the Ohio State League, and for four years played with Columbus in the American Association, where he was one of the sensations of the circuit. Shelton had remarkable success with the West Virginia baseball team during the past season, winning fourteen games and losing four, and with only mediocre material.

MISS OSBORNE WILL GO TO FRANCE
SHORTLY
Miss Minnie A. Osborne, who since last December has been the very successful business manager of the Y. W. C. A. hostess house, and who recently resigned her position, will leave within the next few days for New York City, where she will complete arrangements for her transfer to France, where she will be employed in the work of the Y. M. C. A. Miss Osborne is being congratulated by her numerous friends.

Sammie Schizgie is an Alabamian. He cannot speak English. There is no one in camp that can speak Sammie's language. In the Ninth Company of the Depot Brigade he furnishes unusual amusement. There is only one call that this draftee from Philadelphia knows, and that is mess call. Sammie can whistle. Recently when battalion officers were making the tour of inspection "attention" was called. Everybody stood at attention but Sammie. A lieutenant demanded an explanation. Sammie whistled and the entire company roared.

He is only five feet seven inches tall. He wears a nineteen shirt and has a forty-eight waist. Maurice Goldstein, of Sharon, Pa., is said to be the fattest man in camp. With his 276 pounds of good nature, he is now located at the camp information bureau, where he advises visitors as to the location of various points of interest in the camp.

Maud Powell, America's greatest child, was given an ovation at the Liberty Theater to-night. It was the seventeenth camp that she has played in this country.

The assigning of officers to the twelve replacement battalions of the replacement camp is now well under way. Eight of these battalions are being formed with members of the May draft. A skeleton organization is being formed for the first four battalions pending the arrival of men. No men are being transferred to the replacement camp unless they are physically fit for overseas service. The command of the replacement camp will be a service flag Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
